

Salary Scale: L14 to L18

Employer: Holy Trinity CofE Primary School

Location: Kensington and Chelsea, SW1X and SW3

Starting Salary: £66,114

Contract type: Full Time

Contract term: Permanent

The governors are looking to appoint an exceptional primary leader as Head of School for Holy Trinity CE Primary School from September 2022. We have been Federated with Christ Church Primary School in RBKC since 2019 and share many of the staff and have one Executive Head. We have a strong record of nurturing school leadership and creating an exciting community. It is a very happy place of learning.

You will be responsible for school improvement in your school and will lead a core curriculum area across both schools. You will lead on day-to-day operation and shared long-term strategy to ensure we maintain our vibrant and joyful learning environment that is always seeking excellent outcomes for all.

Key characteristics of the school are that we work incredibly closely with the staff and teachers in our sister school Christ Church. We place enormous value on providing a rich broad and balanced curriculum. We lead with excellence on inclusion and meeting the needs of different groups of learners.

This is a fantastic leadership opportunity to develop your career as the operational leader of the school alongside an experienced Executive Head Teacher who will support you to quickly establish yourself as the core leader of the school.

Visits, including an opportunity to meet with the Executive Head to discuss the role, are strongly encouraged.

If you are interested in working in this vibrant and exciting school please contact the school office to book an appointment on 02078819860.
